ANTI-BRIBERY POLICY

Interpretation

In this policy, 'the Company' means the TWG company that employs you (or, for policies about how we do business, the TWG company concerned): Roofworx (UK) Limited (Co. No. 08946095), Woodworx (Carpentry UK) Ltd (Co. No. 11828681) or Fire-worx (Fire Safety) UK Ltd (Co. No. 14615772). 'TWG' means those companies together, trading as TWG - The Worx Group.

This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and may be amended at any time.

Scope

TWG - The Worx Group (Roofworx, Woodworx and Fire-worx) is committed to conducting business in an ethical and honest manner and is committed to implementing and enforcing systems that ensure bribery is prevented.

TWG has zero-tolerance for bribery and corrupt activities. The Company is committed to acting professionally, fairly, and with integrity in all business dealings and relationships.

TWG will constantly uphold all laws relating to anti-bribery and corruption in all the jurisdictions in which the Company operates. TWG is bound by the laws of the UK, including the Bribery Act 2010, regarding the Company's conduct.

This policy applies to all employees (whether temporary, fixed-term, or permanent), trainees, interns, no matter where they are located.

Definition of Bribery

Bribery refers to the act of offering, giving, promising, asking, agreeing, receiving, accepting, or soliciting something of value or of an advantage so to induce or influence an action or decision.

A bribe refers to any inducement, reward, or object/item of value offered to another individual to gain commercial, contractual, regulatory, or personal advantage.

A Bribe is more than just money, anti-corruption laws generally prohibit giving an individual "anything of value", tangible or intangible, to secure an improper advantage, and law enforcement has interpreted "anything of value" broadly to include (but not exhaustive):

- Extravagant or overly frequent gifts or hospitality, including meals, entertainment, event tickets, travel or accommodation without a clear business purpose
- Medical, educational or living expenses
- Sponsorships and donations
- Offers of employment or unpaid internships
- Contracts or business opportunities

Employee Responsibilities

As an employee of TWG, they must ensure that they read, understand, and comply with the information contained within this policy.

TWG - The Worx Group: Roofworx (UK) Limited, Co. No. 08946095 · Woodworx (Carpentry UK) Ltd, Co. No. 11828681 · Fire-worx (Fire Safety) UK Ltd, Co. No. 14615772
Registered office: Unit 1, Office 1 Tower Lane Business Park, Tower Lane, Warmley, Bristol BS30 8XT

If an employee has reason to believe or suspect that an instance of bribery or corruption has occurred or will occur in the future that breaches this policy, they must notify the Office Manager or a Director. Concerns can also be raised under the Whistleblowing Policy.

If any employee breaches this policy, they will face disciplinary action and could face dismissal for gross misconduct. TWG has the right to terminate a contractual relationship with an employee if they breach this anti-bribery policy.

Training and Communication

TWG's anti-bribery and corruption policy and zero-tolerance attitude will be clearly communicated to all suppliers, contractors, business partners, and any third-parties at the outset of business relations, and as appropriate thereafter.

TWG will conduct risk assessments on all Company business to identify, mitigate and control potential bribery and corruption. The Company will conduct due diligence on associated parties with enhanced due diligence conducted on those deemed to be high risk and ensure that anti-bribery and corruption clauses are included in contracts.

Facilitation Payments and Kickbacks

TWG does not accept and will not make facilitation payments of any kind. Facilitation payments are small unofficial payments made to secure or speed up a routine action by an official. They are bribes, and the Bribery Act 2010 makes no exception for them. Kickbacks, which are typically made in exchange for a business favour or advantage, are also prohibited, whether made or accepted.

The only exception is where an employee is faced with a demand for payment backed by a threat to their own or their family's safety, health or liberty and has no safe alternative. In that situation the employee may make the payment to protect themselves, and must:

- report the incident to a Director as soon as it is safe to do so;
- record the amount, the reason for the payment and the circumstances; and
- obtain a receipt where this is possible without further risk.

Any other payment will be treated as a breach of this policy.

Gifts and hospitality

This policy does not prohibit giving and receiving promotional gifts of low value, or normal and appropriate hospitality.

Receiving Business gifts:

Receiving promotional gifts of low value is normal and appropriate. However, gifts with a value exceeding £50.00 may not be accepted without the prior approval of a Director. Any gift or hospitality offered (whether accepted or refused) with a value over £50.00 must be recorded in the Company's gifts and hospitality register, which is kept by the Office Manager.

Offering Business gifts:

Business gifts are primarily aimed at thanking customers and suppliers for their custom and loyalty. Only authorised gifts may be given.

Registered office: Unit 1, Office 1 Tower Lane Business Park, Tower Lane, Warmley, Bristol BS30 8XT

Receiving Hospitality:

The acceptance of corporate hospitality must be transparent. All invitations must be reported to a Director before an employee accepts any invitation. The following areas are exempt while attending conferences, seminars, sponsored by third parties.

- business and travel expenses incurred
- normal business lunches and meals

Offering gifts and hospitality:

Company hospitality is primarily aimed at thanking customers and suppliers for their custom and loyalty. All hospitality events must have the prior approval of a Director and be recorded in the gifts and hospitality register.

Donations to organisations:

No donations should be made to charities, political parties or other organisations without the prior approval of a Director.

Failure to Prevent Fraud

The Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023 created an offence of failing to prevent fraud, in force since 1 September 2025. It applies to large organisations, but TWG expects the same standard: employees and anyone acting for TWG must not commit fraud intended to benefit TWG or its clients. Suspected fraud must be reported in the same way as bribery. See also the Anti-Money Laundering Policy.

Document Control

Policy owner: a Director. Approved by: the Directors of each TWG company. This policy is reviewed at least annually and whenever the law changes (see the review date in the footer).
